The LD toll sheets show Detroit, Michigan number WO 3-9330. This number has been changed to 223-5100. It is the number of the J. L. Hudson Co., a leading deaprtment store.

Reno, Nevada number FA 2-0082 was called a number of times. Presently reassigned. In 1962-63 it was listed to The Shadows on South Virginia Street, a hoodlum hangout. The licensee of The Shadows, according to a Reno source, was Ben Barnica. He was believed fronting for Tommy Serrano, Arnold Edsell and John Sands. Serrano is a heavy, linked with prostitution. Edsell ran houses in Oregon and Sands was known as "John the Pimp." FBI numbers are available if needed. Sands' wife was captain of the "Starlets," a chorus line at the Riverside Hotel. Barnica once was associated with a man named Grebble in the Rose City Bowling Alley and Lounge in Portland, Orgeon. Ironically, the lessor of The Shadows was named Jack Kennedy.
